

Constitution of the Cowtown Clowns Alley #135

Fort Worth, Texas

ARTICLE I

Name

This organization shall be known as Cowtown Clowns, COAI Alley #135, TCA Alley #9.

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The purpose of this Alley shall be to meet with individuals for the promotion, and the advancement of the art of clowning; to promote harmony, goodwill and cooperation with the membership of neighboring Alleys; to conduct education programs for the advancement of Alley members.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. Membership shall be open to all those that are dedicated to the honorable profession and the advancement of the art of clowning.

Section 2. Six (Five) classes of membership shall exist: regular, junior, associate, honorary, family and life. Regular members shall be sixteen (16) years of age or older. Junior members shall be twelve (12) to fifteen (15) years of age. Associate membership is open to all who wish to assist the other members in their activities without actually participating as a clown. Honorary members shall be those under twelve (12) years of age and shall have a regular member in good standing as a sponsor. Family membership shall consist of immediate members of a family living in the same household.

Section 3. All prospective members must submit an application for membership to Cowtown Clowns. Each prospective member must read, sign and pledge to uphold the Alley's Code of Ethics. If the applicant has shown a sincere interest, then he or she shall be considered a full-fledged Member of the Alley at the end of a three (3) month probationary period. At the end of a satisfactory probationary period, the member will be issued their Alley membership card.

New applicants shall be considered to be on probation for the first three (3) months of membership. During that time the applicant member will be observed to discern compliance with the code of ethics as well as participation. One private verbal warning by the President shall constitute the member being placed on probation. If the member on probation wants to be reinstated, the decision will be brought before the membership at a regular meeting. There would need to be a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote by the membership present to establish the will of the body either to revoke said probationary member's membership or restore status.

Section 4. Each member shall be expected to participate in a minimum of six (6) Alley events, i.e. any event open to all members, per year.

Section 5. It is recommended that each member should belong to the “Texas Clown Association” and “Clowns of American International”.

Section 6. Life Membership may be bestowed upon any member that the Alley wishes to honor for past service, outstanding achievements, etc. Such a member shall no longer be required to pay Alley dues.

Section 7. Only regular members in good standing shall be eligible to make motions, to vote and to hold office.

Section 8. Annual Alley dues shall be due at the January meeting. Members who have not paid their dues by the February meeting shall have their membership automatically revoked.

Section 9. Each full-fledged member will be observed to discern Compliance with the Alley code of ethics as well as participation. If any member is found in violation of the code of ethics and/or by-laws it should be submitted and signed in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will review to consider presentation before the membership. If presentation before the membership is necessary, the decision shall require a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote by the membership present to establish the will of the body either to revoke said full fledge member’s membership or restore status.

ARTICLE IV

Dues

Section 1. Membership dues shall be collected on an annual basis.

Section 2. The dues shall be set by the Board of Directors. They shall agree unanimously on any change.

Section 3. Regular members shall pay the full rate and junior members shall pay one half (1/2) of the full rate. Honorary, Associate and Life members shall not be required to pay dues. There shall be a family membership with dues as follows:
